West Holt Medical Services Foundation began managing a memorial fund in 2010 established in the memory of Dolores Batenhorst Keating, one of Atkinson's most caring residents. Dolores was born in Stuart, graduated from Stuart High School and lived her entire adult life in Atkinson.

She worked for over 25 years as a Registered Nurse at West Holt Memorial Hospital. Dolores was married to John Keating for 56 years. They had eight children, Mary Rose Schaaf, Maureen Tsuchiya, Phillip Keating, Mark Keating, Patrick Keating, James Keating, Matthew Keating and Gerard Keating.

Dolores Keating was a strong supporter of local, high-quality medical care, and her family is honoring her memory by encouraging local students to help fulfill her dream by pursuing a medical degree.

The memorial fund, with generous contributions from both the family and Dolores's many friends, currently totals over $26,000 and is managed by the West Holt Medical Services Foundation. Each year three scholarships of $1,000 each is awarded to residents of any age from the Atkinson, Stuart or O'Neill area pursuing a degree in the medical field.
